

Chris Miller

Personal Information

Address Advocates' Library, Parliament House, Edinburgh, EH1 1RF
Telephone (work) 07883107130
Email chris.miller@themis-advocates.co.uk

Clerking Information

Clerk Kiera Johnston
Address Themis Advocates, Parliament House, Edinburgh, EH1 1RF
Telephone 0131 260 5654
Email kiera.johnston@themis-advocates.co.uk

Areas of Practice and Interest

Criminal and Disciplinary; Commercial; Damages and Reparation; Public Law and Equality

Profile

Chris called the Bar in 2020. His areas of interest include Criminal, Commercial, Human Rights, Intellectual Property, Media, Reparation, and Public Law. He can be instructed in a wide range of both Criminal and Civil Law matters.

While training as a Solicitor, Chris specialised in Civil Litigation and Personal Injury Law, appearing regularly in the Sheriff Court before qualifying in 2018.

He began devilling in 2019, gaining Criminal Litigation experience in the High Court of Justiciary at trial and appellate level.

He also gained further Civil Litigation experience in the Court of Session, including Private Law actions involving Commercial, Intellectual Property, Reparation and Media Law disputes; as well as Public Law actions involving Judicial Review and Human Rights. Additionally, he gained experience in cases proceeding before the Immigration and Mental Health Tribunals.

Chris has a particular interest in the operation of Intellectual Property, Media, Commercial, and Criminal Law in Cyberspace having been awarded the degree of Master of Laws with Distinction in Internet Law. He has tutored at Strathclyde University Law School, and provided CPD on Data Protection and Privacy.

Qualifications

2015-2016

Diploma in Professional Legal Practice
University of Strathclyde

2014-2016

Master of Laws (Internet Law & Policy) (Distinction)
University of Strathclyde

2010-2014

Bachelor of Laws (Scots Law) (First Class Honours)
University of Strathclyde

Devilmasters

Paul O'Brien; Niall McCluskey; Emma Toner; Julius Komorowski

THEMIS ADOVCATES

+44 131 260 5654 clerks@themis-advocates.co.uk
11 Parliament Square, Edinburgh EH1 1RF