Land & Property and Public Law & Equality

Profile

John Campbell passed Advocate in 1981 and was admitted to Lincoln's Inn in 1990. His primary practice areas are in Town and Country Planning, Energy, and Land & Rural Law. He works all over the UK in planning matters and also in ADR, particularly Arbitrations. He is consulted by regulatory authorities, Councils, members of the public and developers. He places great emphasis on the value of teamwork, and in keeping people out of Court. A specialist in inquiry work, he has conducted many types of statutory and non-statutory inquiry, notably the Holyrood Inquiry, and in the Princes Street and many Planning Inquiries. He has appeared in related JR's and Appeals. He has acted as counsel in arbitrations, is qualified to sit as an arbitrator and is an ABTA Panel Arbitrator.
